Formula 1 is boring

FORMULA 1 GROSSER PREIS SANTANDER VON DEUTSCHLAND 2009, at the NÃ¼rburgring over a length of 308 kilometers. With teams like Ferrari, Mercedes and BMW. Should be epic but isn't. I really tried to get into it, even did some laps on the ring in F1 Championship edition on my PS3 before the race, but watching the race on RTL it's easy to compare watching paint dry and watching tires wear. Monaco is nice, but the other races have regulated themselves beyond their raison d'Ãªtre.
