Spyker Spyder

Tuesday 4 August 2009 22:07

It seems I forgot a few brands in the list. There are also TVRs and Spykers. But what were they thinking when they came up with the name Spyker Spyder? How are we supposed to pronounce that? Spijker Spijder? Spaiker Spaider? Spijker Spaider?

Anyway, I like those sportscars on the Elbchaussee because they are so low their right side rear view mirror is lower than my bar−end. A VW Golf for example has it's right side rear view mirror at the same height as my bar−end is, I noticed.
