Bas Rutten

On Gaykings.tv a very nice item about Bas Rutten. I'd never heard of the bloke until someone pointed out this is a famous Dutch guy doing big stuff in a parallel world unknown to me and some GTA IV related stuff. But in the video I hear him talk dutch for the first time, and it turns out he has a southern accent, not unlike Jos Verstappen. Which doesn't go well with trying to be a badass, because it sounds like the opposite of Terminator. So instantly Bas becomes super−cool. Give that man a reward. And add some cooking apparel to that shop. I want an Original Jumping Dragon butcher's apron.
