Mini Ninjas demo

Saturday 22 August 2009 04:53

They are cute. Small ninjas running around a forest rescuing cute animals from bamboo cages and collecting all sorts of other cute stuff. Shaking trees and bushes with the SIXAXIS to make the berries and fruit fall down is fun. Using magic to turn into a bunny is fun. And if I could be bothered to figure out the other things that are possible I bet it will be even more fun. It's all so cute.
